— Pilates Reformer Salon

Location: Elahiyeh, Tehran, Iran

Area: 110 Sq.m

Year: 2025

This Reformer Pilates Studio is envisioned as a serene and empowering space where movement meets mindfulness. The interior features a soft, neutral palette with textured plaster walls, light oak herringbone floors, and sheer drapery that filters in natural light, creating an airy and uplifting atmosphere. The dynamic ceiling installation of flowing fabric evokes a sense of grace and fluidity, echoing the essence of Pilates practice.

Carefully placed mirrors expand the visual space while enhancing body awareness during workouts. Delicate material choices like pale stone, pink accents, and sculptural furnishings in the lounge area establish a spa-like calm, while the black equipment grounds the design in strength. A touch of greenery and organic shapes throughout reinforces the connection between the body, breath, and nature.
