Jumeirah Bay

Location: Jumeirah Bay, Dubai, UAE

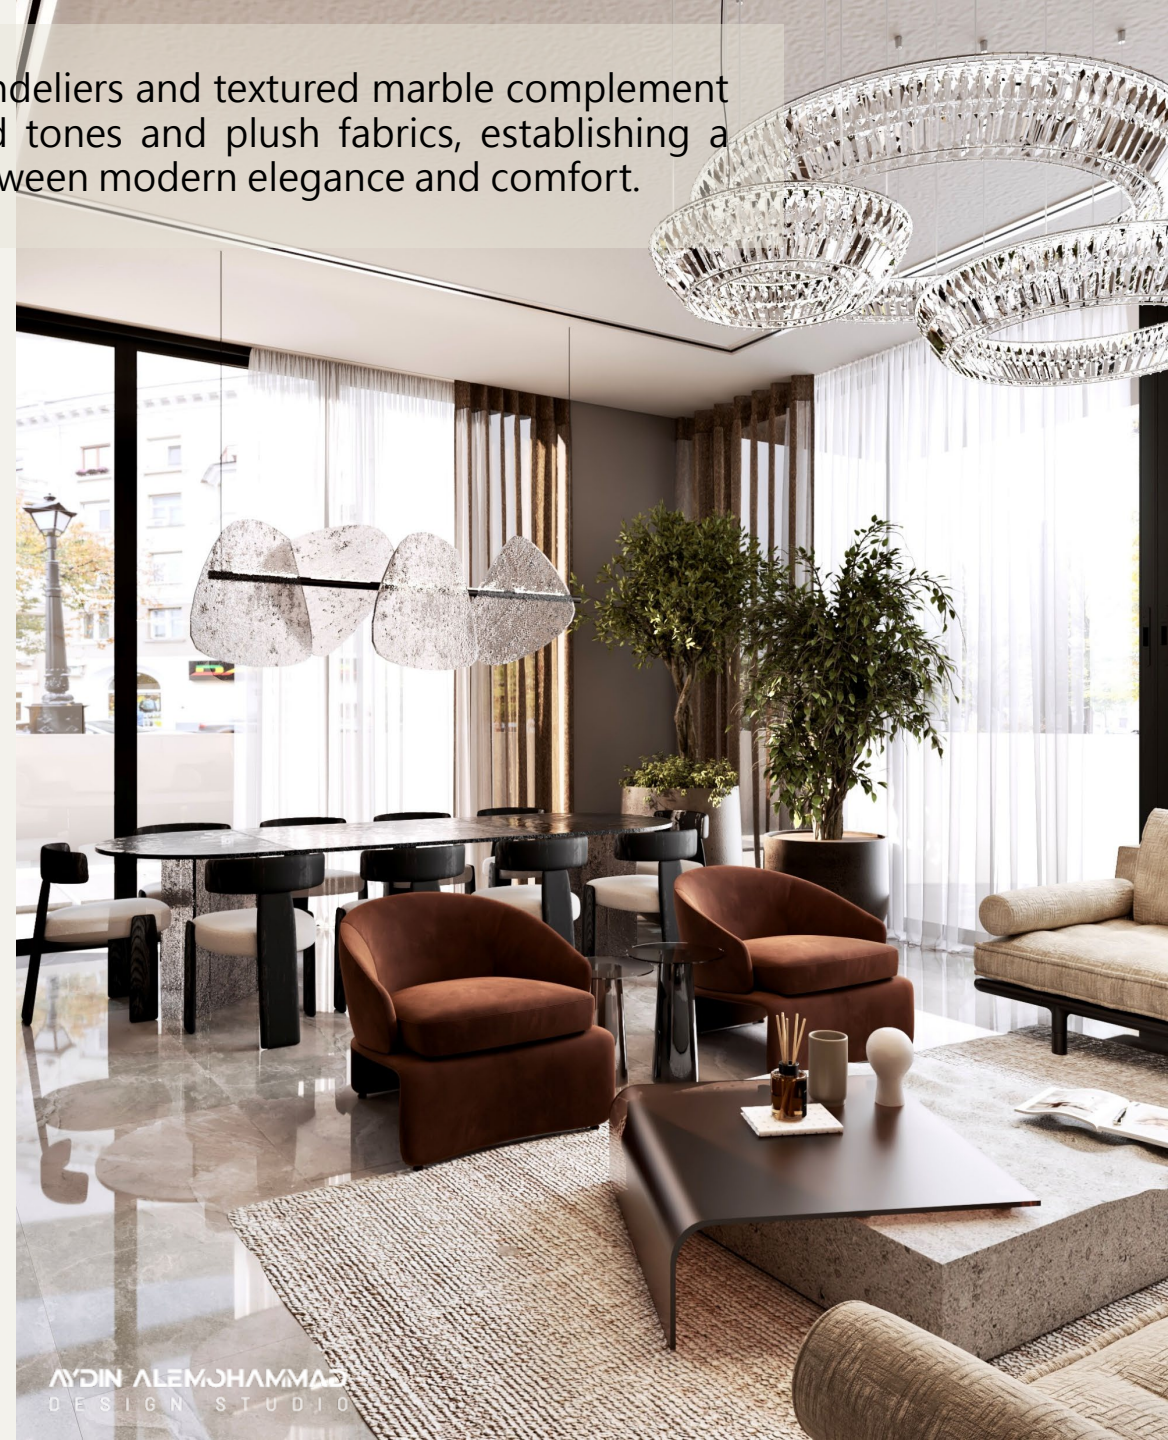

Area: 858 Sq.m

Year: 2024

The Jumeirah residential project exemplifies refined luxury through a carefully curated palette of earthy neutrals, tactile finishes, and sculptural lighting. The design emphasizes fluidity and softness—rounded furniture, velvet textures, and layered lighting create a welcoming and elevated ambiance.

Crystal chandeliers and textured marble complement warm wood tones and plush fabrics, establishing a balance between modern elegance and comfort.

Every detail, from the curated art wall to the custom lighting fixtures, contributes to a cohesive spatial narrative that is both contemporary and timeless.

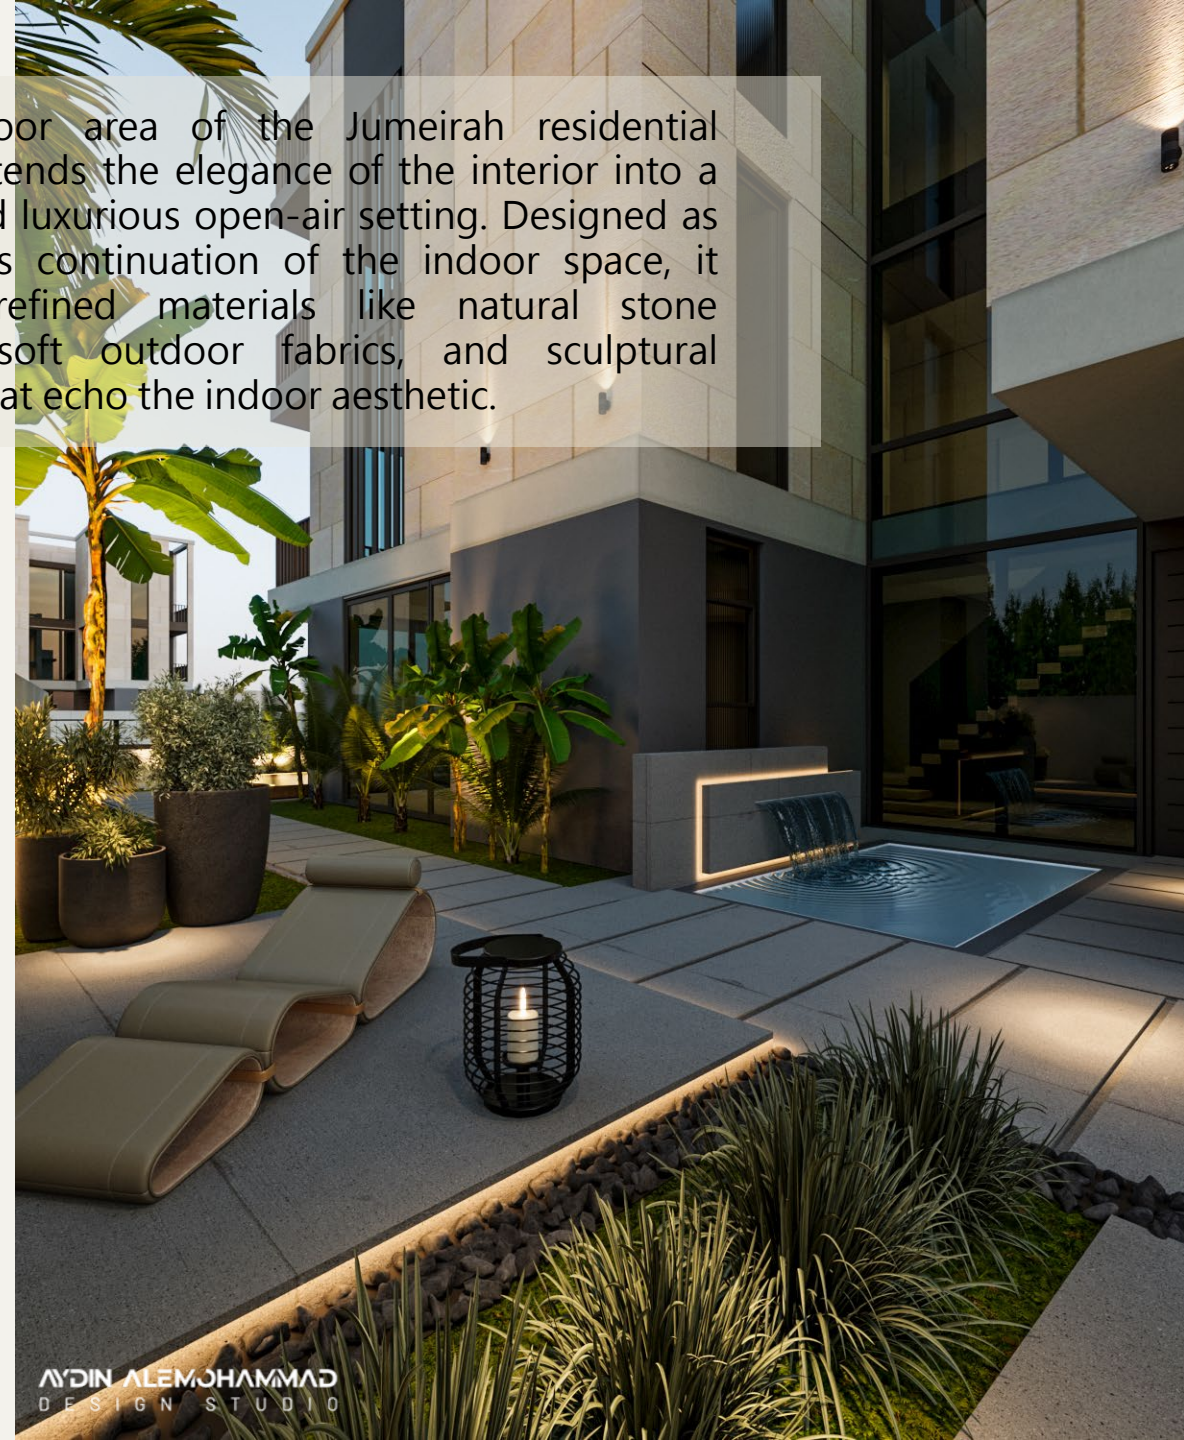

The outdoor area of the Jumeirah residential project extends the elegance of the interior into a serene and luxurious open-air setting. Designed as a seamless continuation of the indoor space, it features refined materials like natural stone flooring, soft outdoor fabrics, and sculptural planters that echo the indoor aesthetic.

Lighting is warm and atmospheric, enhancing the mood during evening hours. Whether used for intimate gatherings or quiet reflection, the outdoor space embodies a calm, resort-like ambiance that aligns with the overall sophistication of the residence.

Dubai Hills Villa

Location: Dubai Hills, Dubai, UAE

Area: 300 Sq.m

Year: 2025

This residential project embodies a refined fusion of contemporary minimalism and bold artistic expression. Expansive floor-to-ceiling windows flood the interiors with natural light, enhancing the contrast between soft neutral tones and striking dark marble accents.

Each zone—whether for lounging, entertaining, or reflection—is designed with a gallery-like clarity, celebrating form and balance. The interplay between natural materials, modern geometry, and curated artworks creates a sophisticated yet grounded atmosphere, tailored for both comfort and visual impact.

Jumeirah Bay

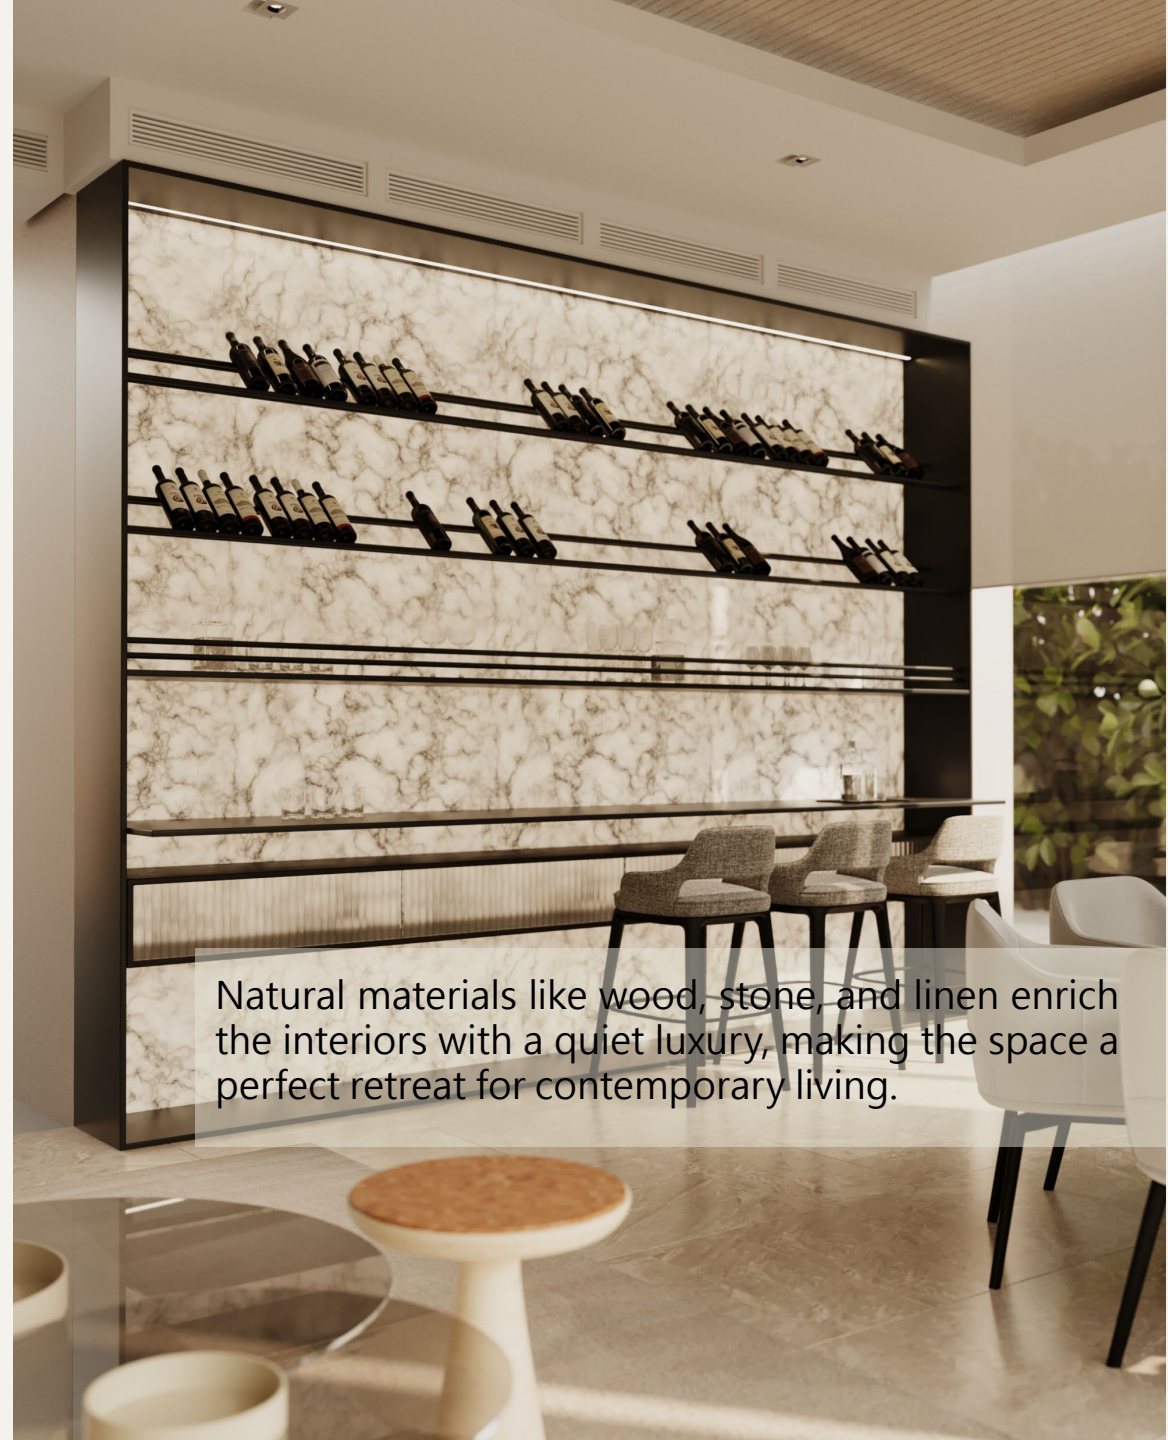

Location: Jumeirah Bay, Dubai, UAE

Area: 120 Sq.m

Year: 2024

The Jumeirah Bay residential project blends serene sophistication with modern elegance, creating a space that feels both elevated and grounded. Warm neutrals, soft curves, and tactile textures come together in a calming palette, enhanced by floor-to-ceiling windows that invite in natural light and lush garden views.

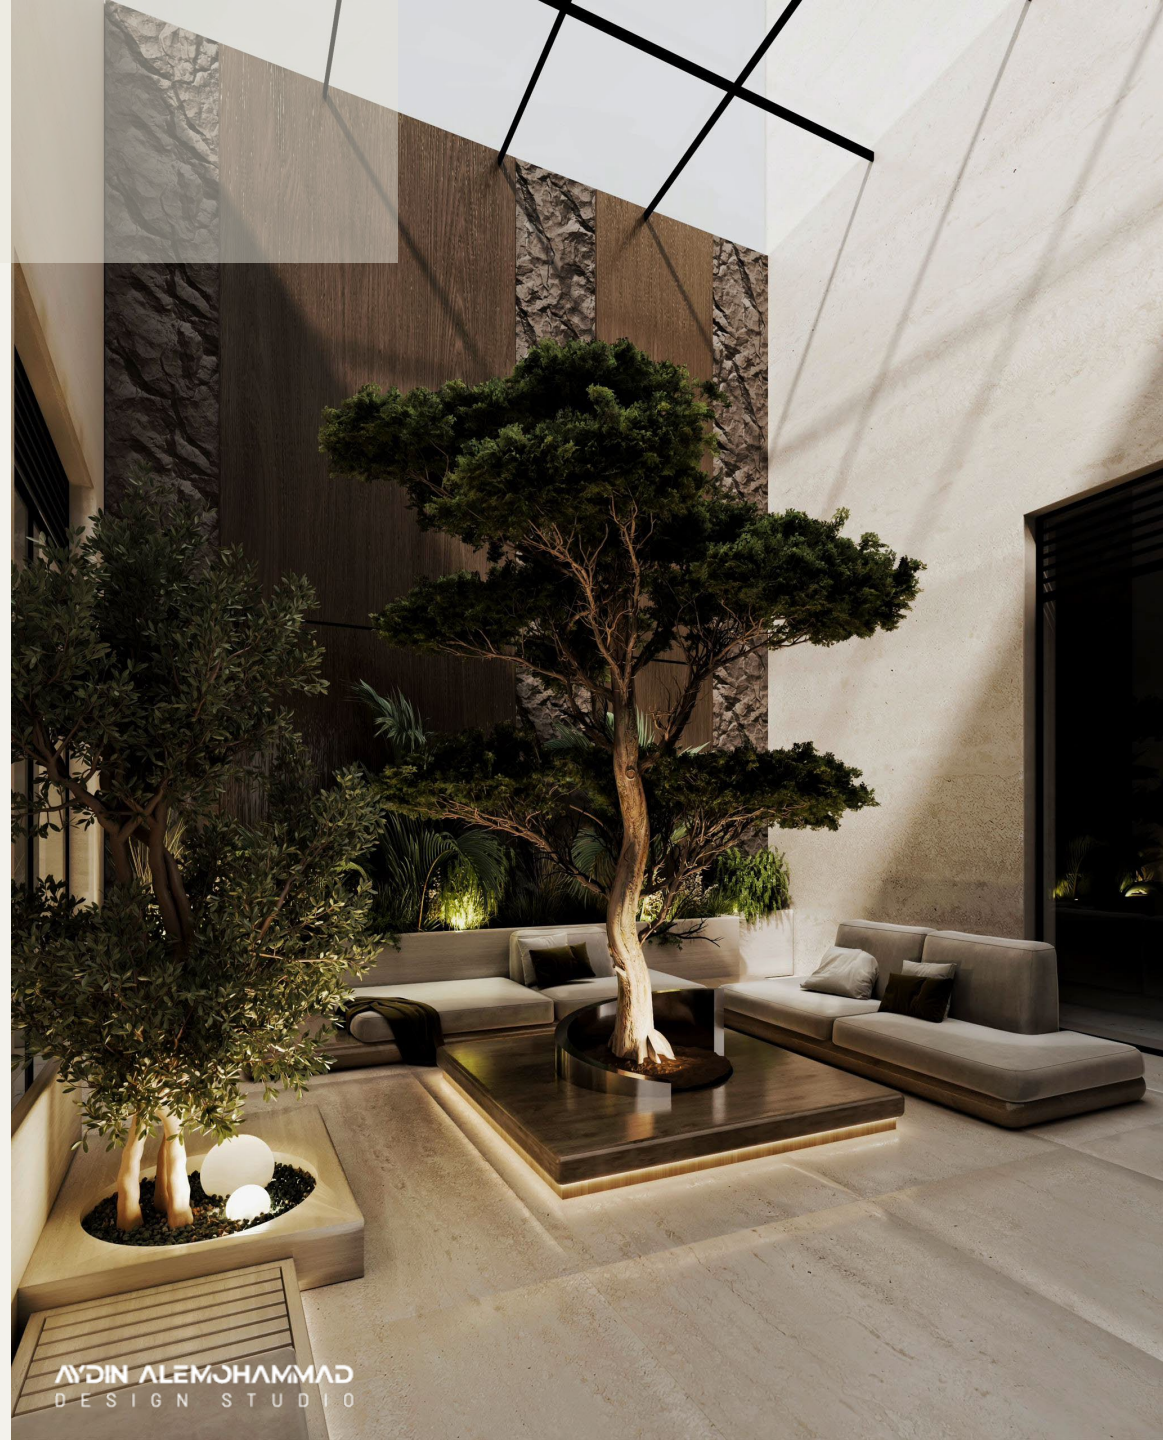

Natural materials like wood, stone, and linen enrich the interiors with a quiet luxury, making the space a perfect retreat for contemporary living.

Luxury is woven into every detail: from custom-designed furniture with exquisite craftsmanship, to marble surfaces that exude opulence, and delicate metallic accents adding a subtle glow. The lighting concept was meticulously planned to create layers of ambiance—blending natural daylight with warm artificial lighting to highlight architectural features and elevate the overall mood.

This project is more than just an interior design; it is a tailor-made living experience, where every material, texture, and proportion has been thoughtfully selected to offer both comfort and grandeur.

Tital Al Ghaf Residential

Location: Tital Al Ghaf, Dubai, UAE

Area: 290 Sq.m

Year: 2025

This residential project embodies a harmonious blend of natural elegance and refined modernism. The interior design balances earthy materials like textured wood, marble, and stone with smooth, sculptural furniture in soft, neutral tones.

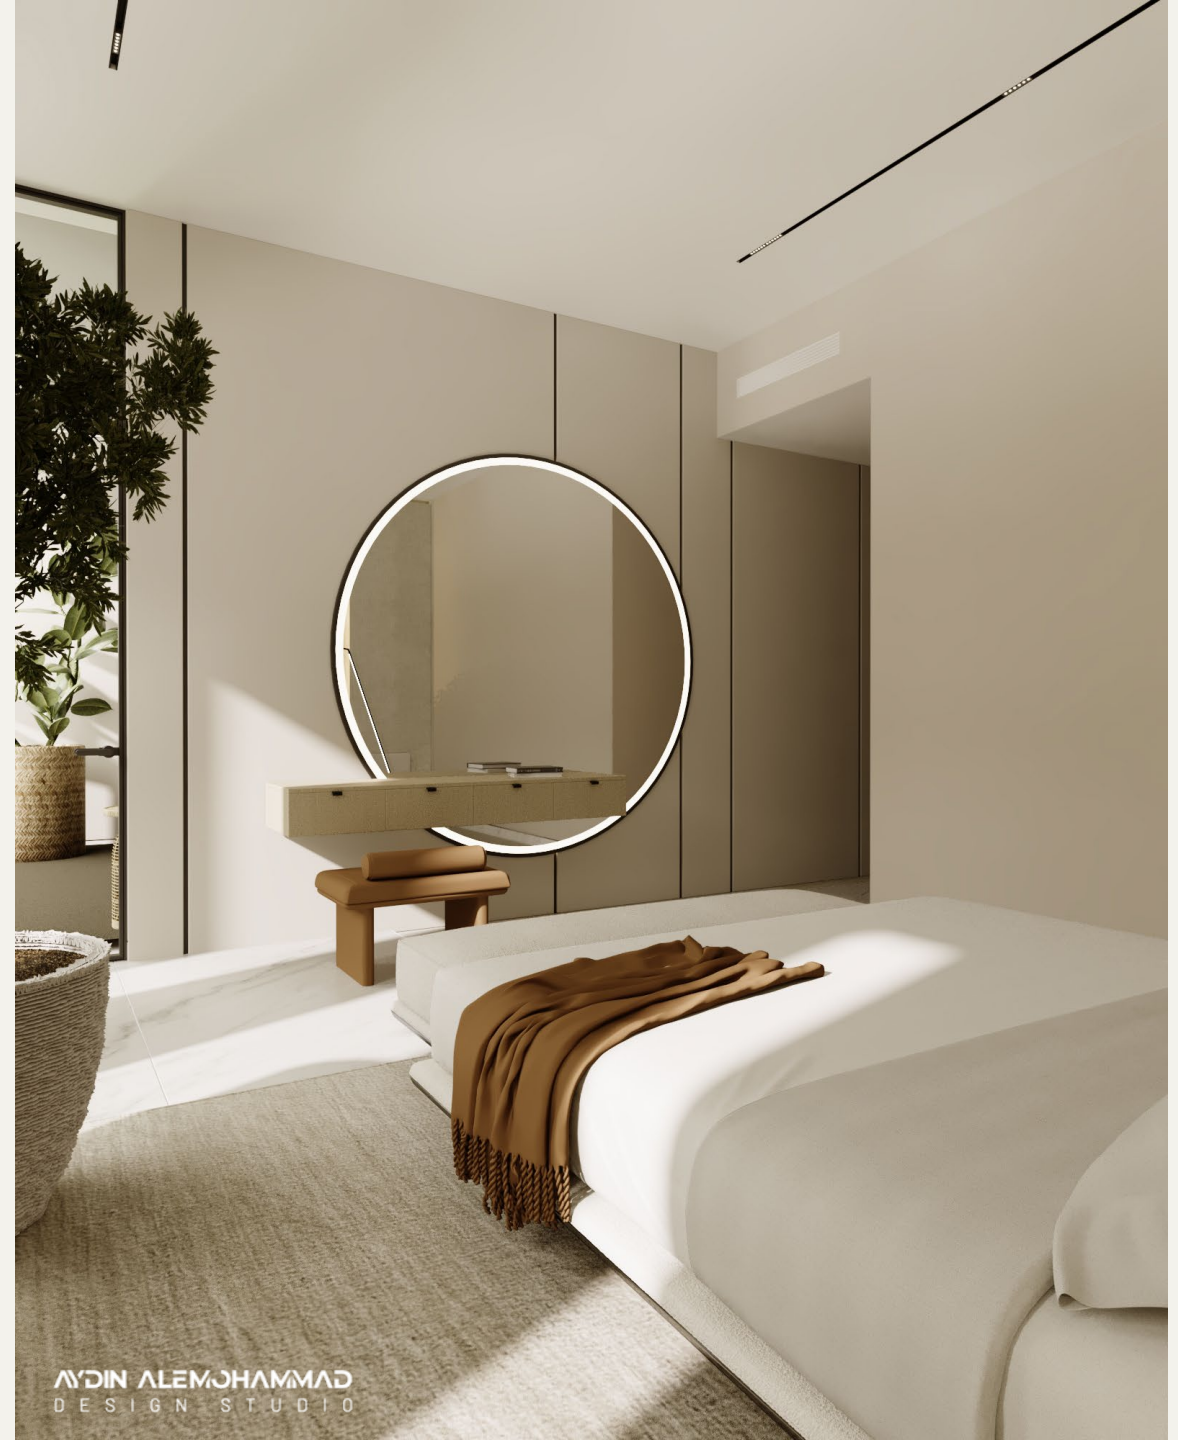

Every detail—from the artistic wall treatments to the curated accessory placements—reflects a calm, sophisticated lifestyle, making the home feel both luxurious and effortlessly serene.

Dubai Villa

Location: Dubai, UAE

Area: 112 Sq.m

Year: 2024

The Dubai Villa project is shaped by gentle curves, layered neutral tones, and a meticulous balance of light and shadow. Plush, organic forms in seating are paired with bold, contemporary lighting and artistic accents, creating a luxurious yet calming atmosphere.

Abstract artworks and curated décor add depth and personality. Every corner of this villa exudes serene sophistication and contemporary charm.

Khezershahr Villa

Location: Khezarshahr, Iran

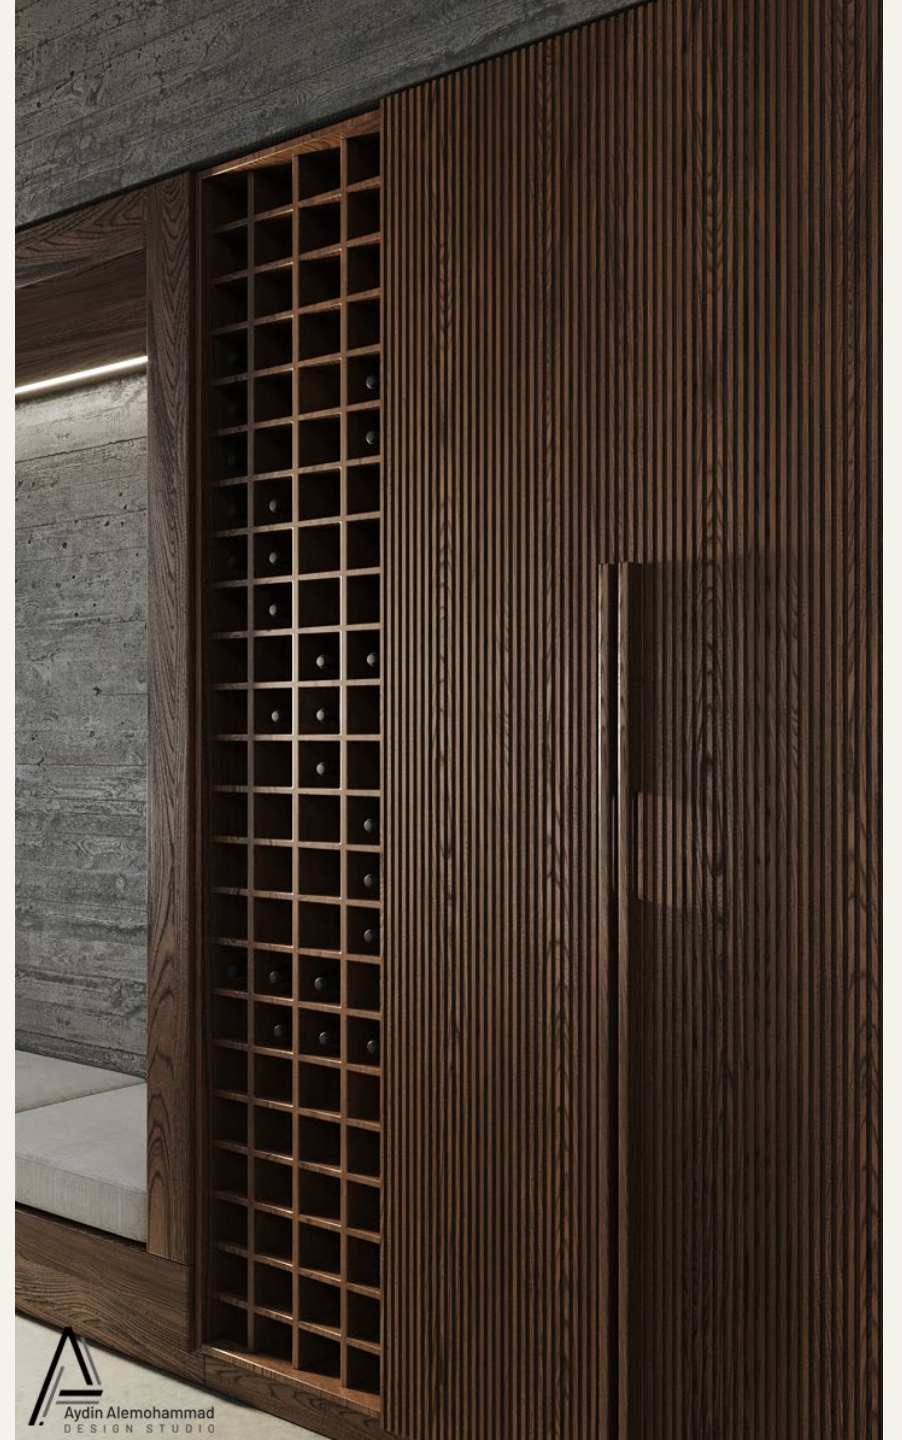

Area: 1000 Sq.m

Year: 2023

The Khezershahr Villa project reflects a harmonious dialogue between nature, texture, and architectural purity. The design embraces brutalist elegance through the use of raw concrete, natural wood, and stone, most notably showcased in the sculptural kitchen island carved from a single boulder.

Soaring ceilings, expansive glazing, and clean lines evoke a sense of openness and serenity, while lighting and custom furnishings add refinement and rhythm. Each space is curated with restraint and purpose.

— Motel Qu Villa

Location: Khezarshahr, Iran

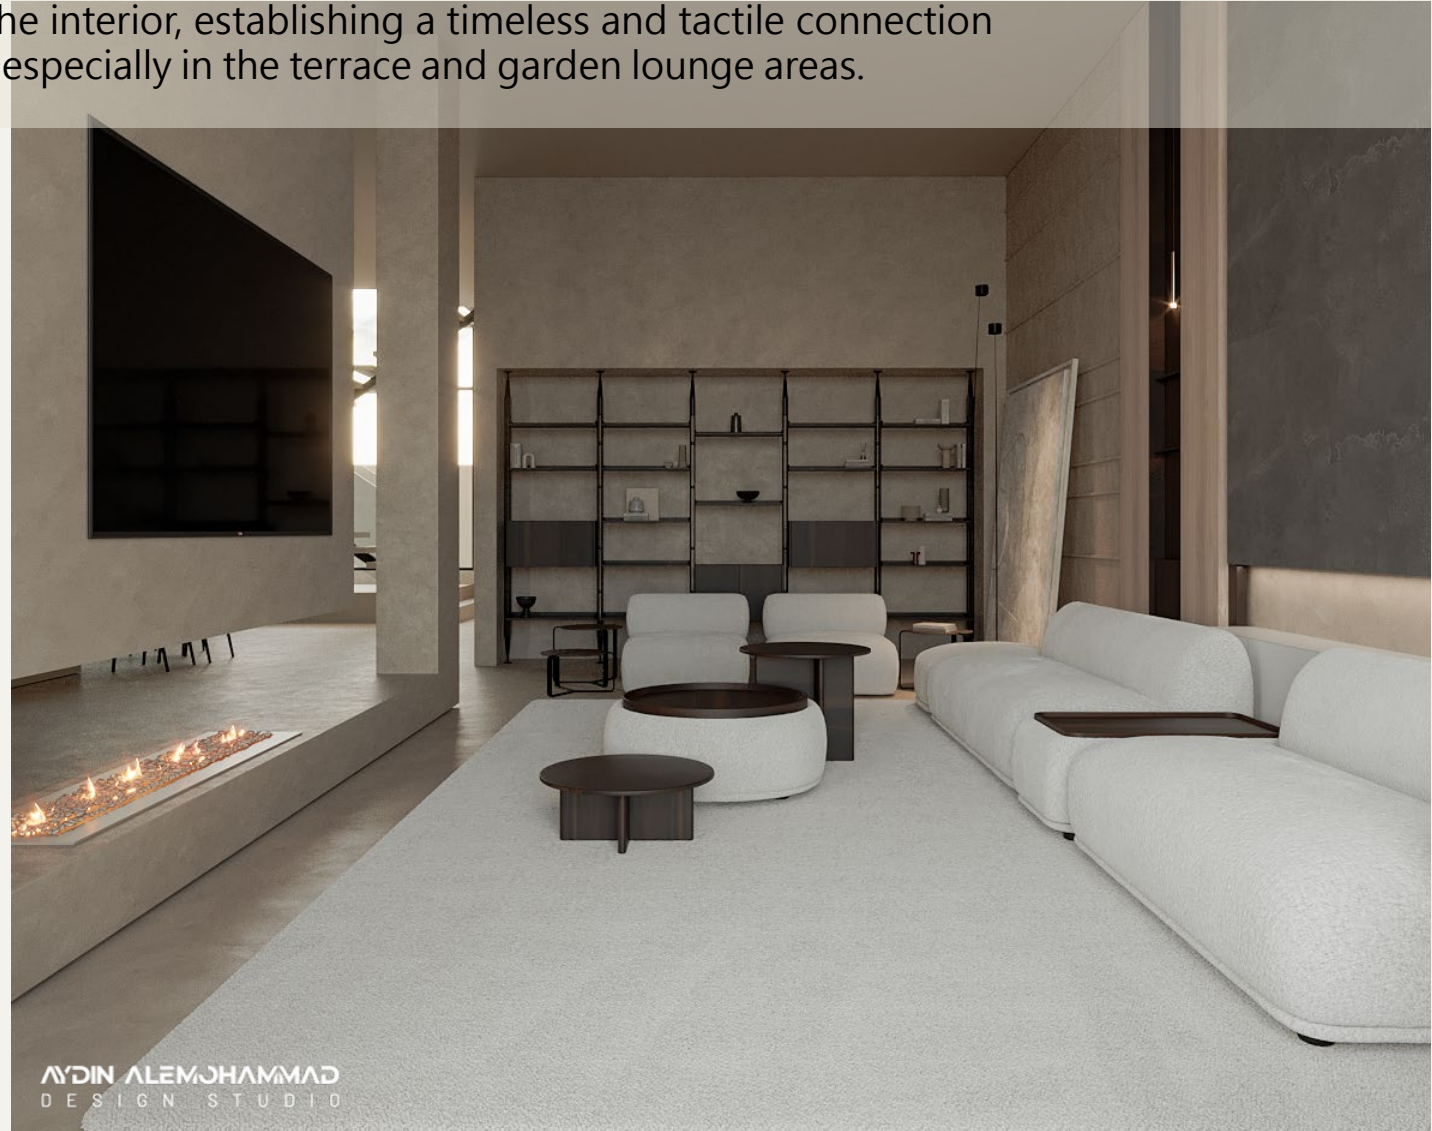

Area: 1000 Sq.m

Year: 2023

The Motel Qu residence showcases a refined balance between sculptural modernism and soft minimalism. The design embraces a palette of muted neutrals—warm stone, soft white, and matte black—accentuated by textured surfaces and curved forms.

Expansive vertical volumes and double-height spaces enhance the sense of grandeur, while bespoke furniture and ambient lighting create an inviting, serene atmosphere. Natural materials like wood, stone, and wool further ground the interior, establishing a timeless and tactile connection to the outdoors, especially in the terrace and garden lounge areas.

This project is a testament to quiet luxury and thoughtful spatial composition.

The integrated lighting enhances the spatial depth and highlights the layered textures of stone, greenery, and concrete. With an inviting firepit lounge and a seating area by the pool, this outdoor space is crafted not just for visual appeal but for immersive comfort and social gathering.

The design emphasizes privacy, openness, and elegance—transforming the exterior into an extension of refined indoor living.

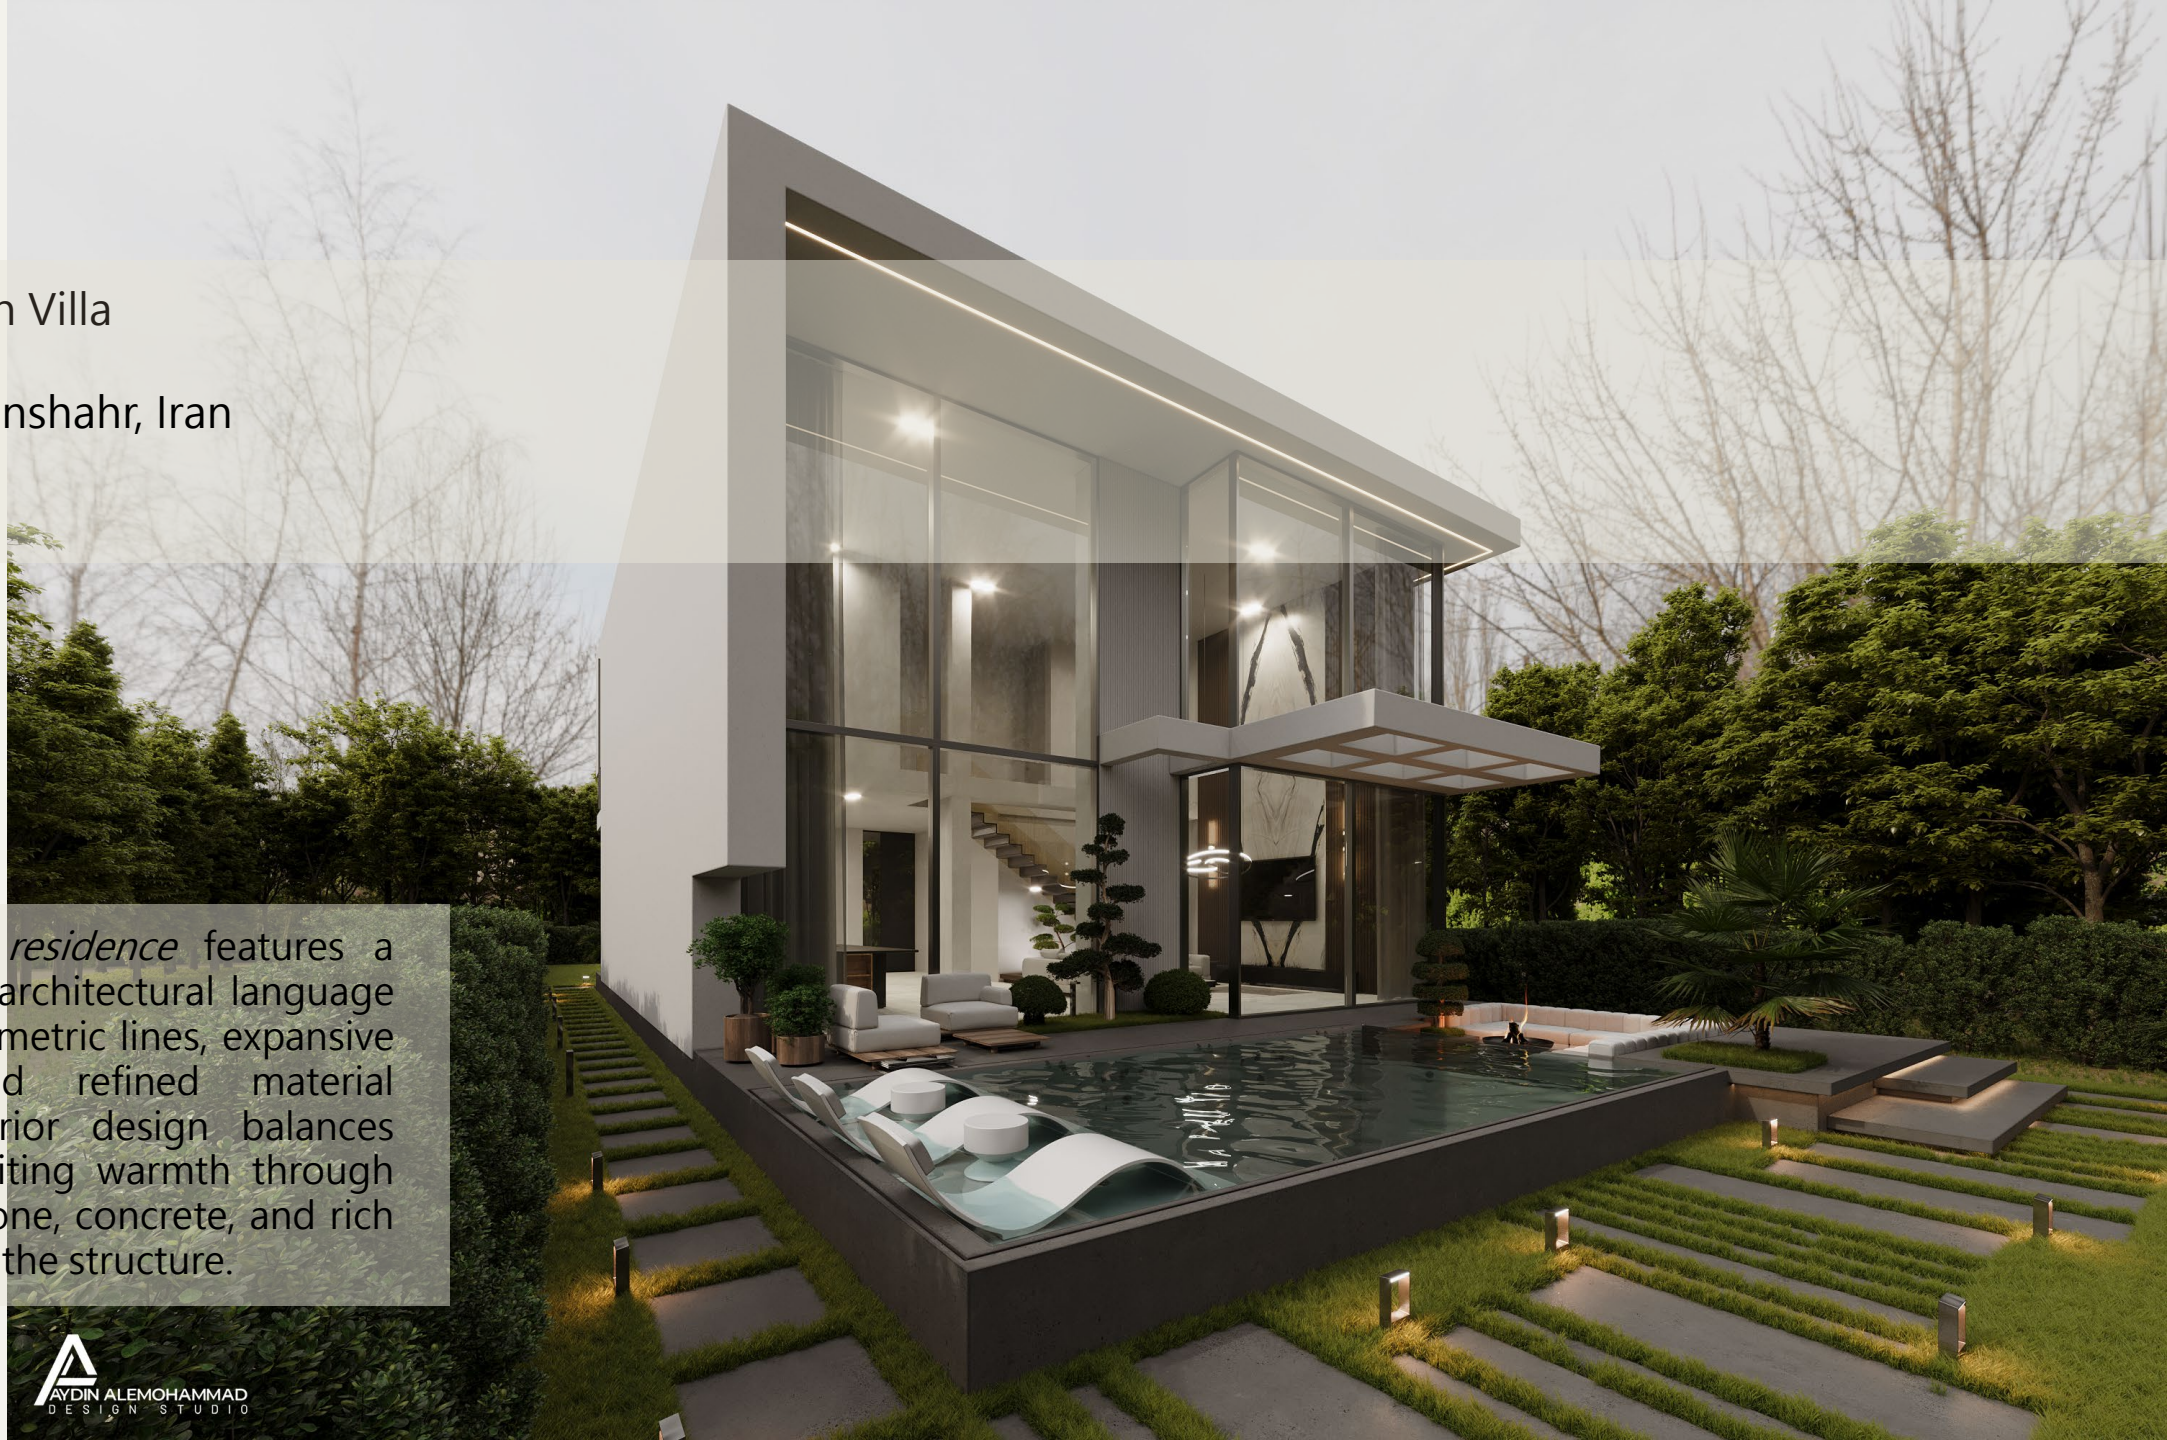

Dehkadeh Shirin Villa

Location: Salmanshahr, Iran

Area: 350 Sq.m

Year: 2023

The Salman Shahr residence features a bold, contemporary architectural language defined by crisp geometric lines, expansive glass façades, and refined material contrasts. The exterior design balances minimalism with inviting warmth through the use of natural stone, concrete, and rich greenery that frames the structure.

Outdoor living is thoughtfully emphasized, with a sculpted garden pathway leading to a serene sunken lounge beside a sleek infinity-edge pool. Lounge chairs integrated into the water, layered landscaping, and ambient lighting complete the tranquil outdoor atmosphere, creating a seamless transition between nature and modern living.

Polour Villa

Location: Polour, Iran

Area: 3300 Sq.m

Year: 2024

The design of this mountain villa in Polour embraces the raw beauty of its natural surroundings through the extensive use of earthy materials such as stone, concrete, and textured finishes. The architecture blends modern minimalism with a rugged, grounded aesthetic, reflecting the mountainous terrain outside.

Large glass openings allow panoramic views and natural light to flood the interior spaces, while the material palette—rough stone, warm wood, and muted tones—creates a calm, contemplative environment. The spaces are functionally divided yet visually connected, with features like a sculptural stone island, exposed structural textures, and a seamless indoor pool area that echo the untouched essence of the site.

This villa offers a refined yet organic retreat, rooted deeply in the spirit of the landscape.

The design merges brutalist elements with contemporary elegance, offering a refined retreat that remains connected to its rugged surroundings.

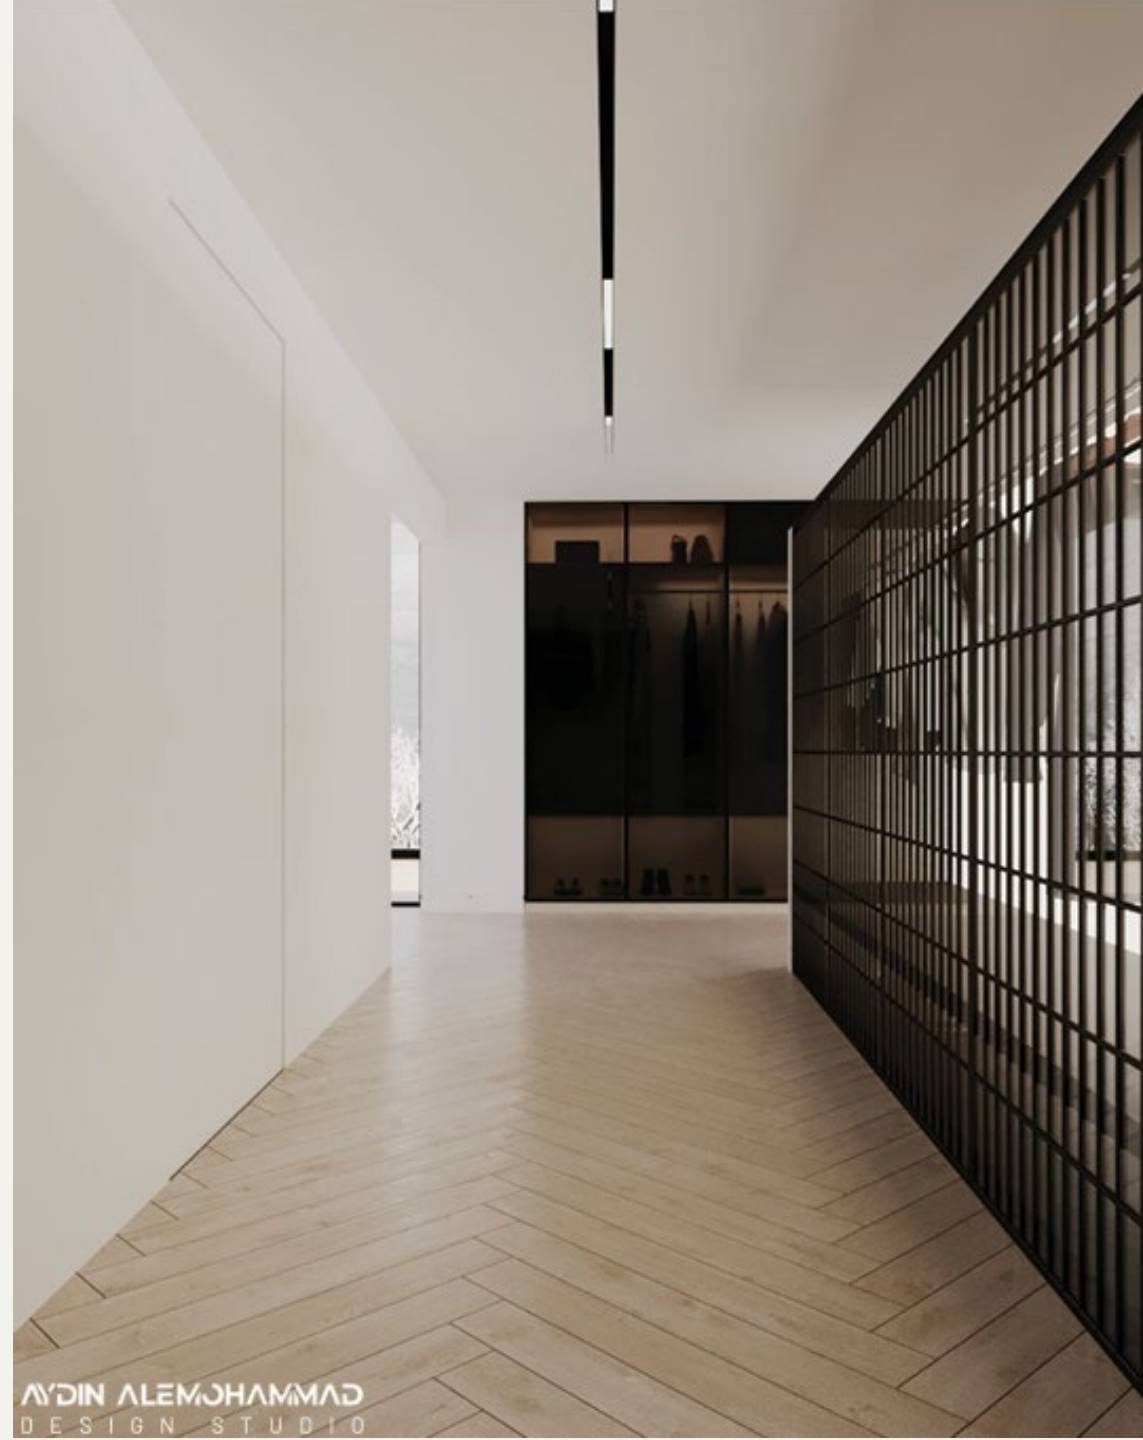

In the bedrooms, low platform beds, earthy tones, and natural light create a serene atmosphere. Each room opens up to private outdoor views, extending the living experience into the landscape.

The outdoor design of the Polour Villa, nestled in a mountainous region, embraces the raw beauty of its natural surroundings through a minimalist and earthy material palette. Concrete, stone, and textured tiles form the foundation of terraces and sunken lounges, blurring the line between built form and landscape.

The outdoor seating areas, complete with a sculptural firepit and low-set dining tables, are thoughtfully positioned to offer panoramic views of the hills. Lush planters with native greenery add softness and privacy while reinforcing the villa's seamless integration into the rugged terrain.

— Vanoush Villa

Location: Vanoush, Tehran, Iran

Area: 420 Sq.m

Year: 2024

The Vanoush residential project is designed with a refined minimalist aesthetic, where spatial fluidity and verticality define the overall character. The material palette is intentionally muted, with soft beige flooring, concrete-finish feature walls, and creamy textiles that create a calming, grounded ambiance.

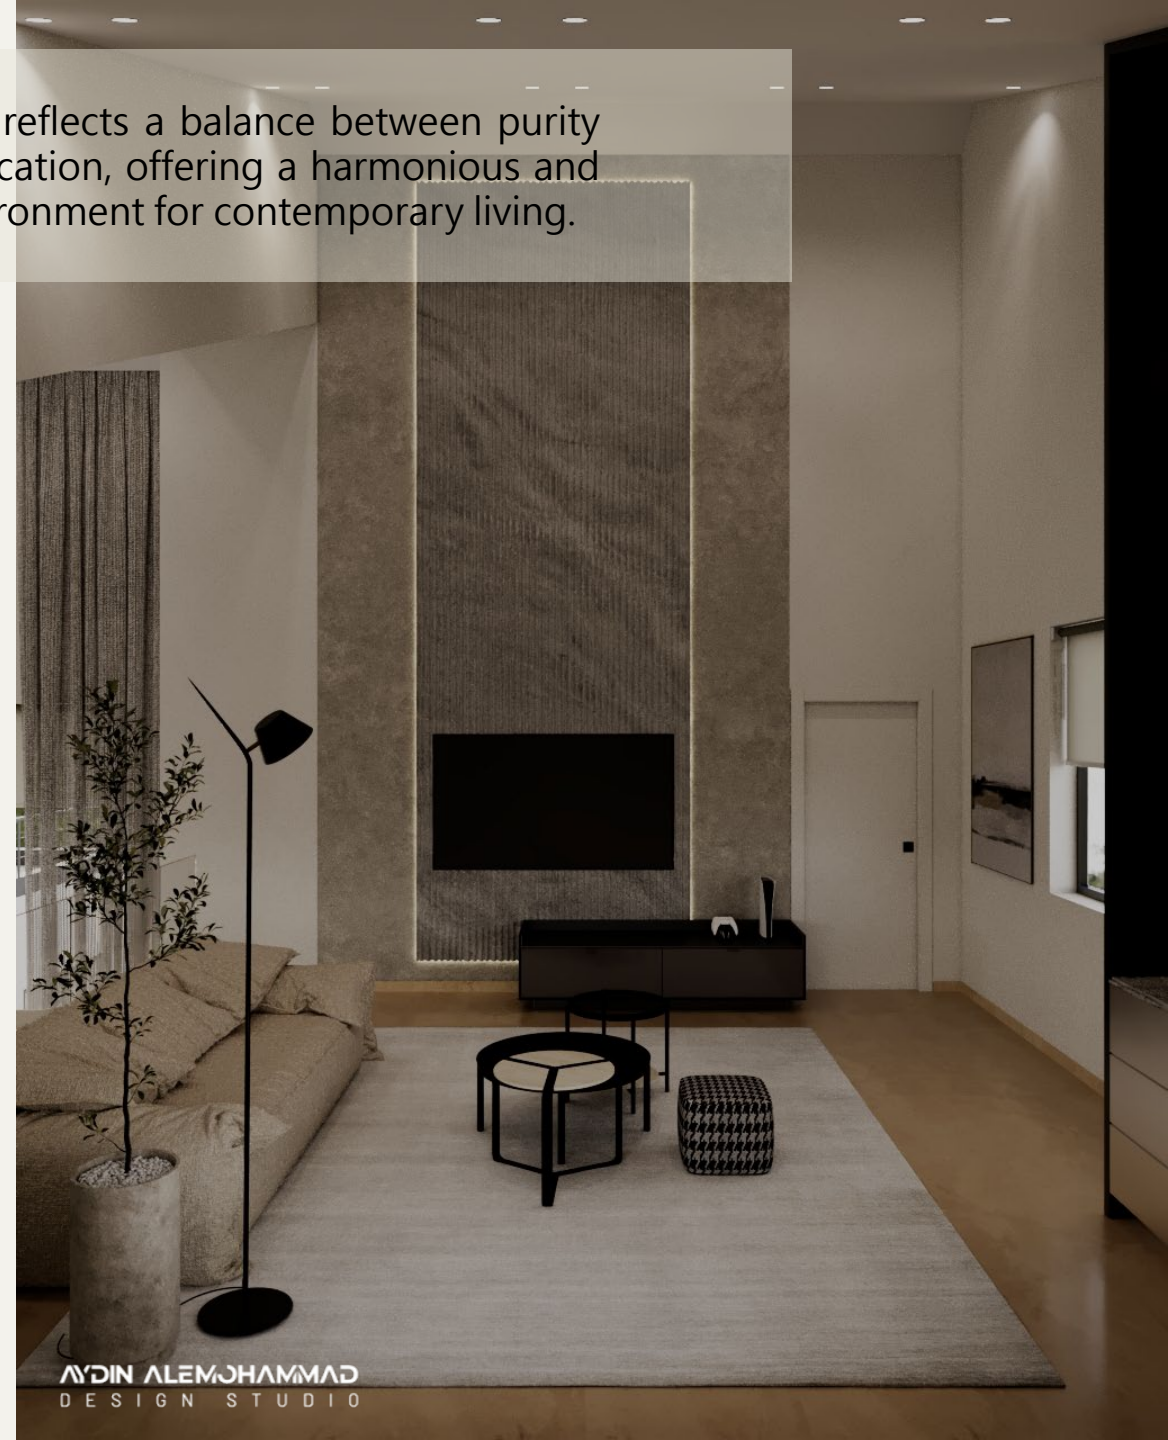

Natural light floods the space through large windows, highlighting the interplay of shadow and texture throughout the day. Sleek black elements—visible in lighting fixtures, railings, and furniture details—bring a modern contrast to the soft architecture, while curated greenery introduces a subtle organic rhythm.

This project reflects a balance between purity and sophistication, offering a harmonious and elegant environment for contemporary living.

Zibadasht Villa

Location: Zibadasht, Tehran, Iran

Area: 900 Sq.m

Year: 2025

The Zibadasht residential project is a refined composition of warm neutrals, natural textures, and sculptural volumes. The design reflects a contemporary minimalism grounded in material richness—highlighting oak wood flooring, brushed stone surfaces, and bronze accents throughout the interiors. The open-plan layout integrates the living, dining, and recreational spaces seamlessly, while large-scale windows and neutral wall tones amplify natural light and spatial fluidity.

Furniture pieces are low-profile and generously proportioned, emphasizing comfort and understated elegance. The project also includes a dramatic private lounge with green marble wall cladding, a suspended indoor swing garden, a wine bar, and a cozy theater room, transforming the home into a multi-sensory experience of luxury, intimacy, and tranquility.

The bedrooms continue the serene aesthetic with upholstered wall panels and natural textures, offering a calm and restorative environment.
